

Press release....

'Swans In Flight' is a self titled 16 track album of specially written songs using recording techniques which have sought to push the boundaries of the acoustic guitar to new dimensions. Using exclusively acoustic guitars against a backdrop of electric instruments, this energetic and highly melodic album is the work of songwriting partnership Hugo Montgomery-Swan and record producer Mark Tucker.

Recorded in studios both in the UK and the United States, the album's material draws upon influences as diverse as 1920's jazz through to hard rock. A unique cross-section of world-class 'guest' musicians also stud the various 16 tracks and include such names as; James LoMenzo (Black Label Society/Megadeth), Martin Barre (Jethro Tull), Steve Stevens (Billy Idol), Marco Mendoza (Thin Lizzy/Whitesnake), Kip Winger (Alice Cooper/Winger), Phil Johnston (The Robert Plant Band), Doyle Dykes, Ken Nicol (Steeleye Span), Robin Guy (Bruce Dickinson/Martin Gretch), TM Stevens (James Brown, The Pretenders), Ric Sanders (Fairport Convention), Johnny Mars, and John Noyce (Gary Moore/Jethro Tull).

The album's release via Oyster House Records date is scheduled for January 28th 2008. Distribution through all leading record stores will be undertaken by the UK's largest independent music distributor, Proper Music of London. 'Swans in Flight' is also available as a worldwide download. For all information see www.swansinflight.com
